Kia ora Parents and Whanau

Welcome to a short week at school! I trust that you all enjoyed the extra long Labour Weekend and were able to make the most of the beautiful weather over the four-day break.

On Wednesday, I went to Waimarino with Rooms 1, 2 and 16. We had a fantastic time. The children made the most of the many opportunities to challenge themselves, both on and off the water.

they finally overcame their fear.

For others, the challenges lay in the many team building, problem solving challenges. It was rather entertaining to watch my group navigate the spider's web and balancing board activities. It took some time for us to listen to each other, instead of barging on with our own individual plans. There are some very resourceful children at Bellevue who listened well to their peers, made considered suggestions, and persevered when things were difficult. This was enjoyable to witness.

It was also great to watch the thrill seekers amongst the group who leapt off the highest platform, tore down the slide and leapt onto the blob with joy and excitement. Waimarino really has something to offer everyone and I was super proud of the respect our children showed to the staff and parents who accompanied us on the trip.

Middle School Market

Our middle school children have been learning about developing a product and marketing. This culminated today in our middle school market. I made some great purchases- a stress ball (which I'm sure will come in very handy), a book mark, pet rock, Christmas decoration, magnet for my fridge, and a lovely card. The children all enjoyed the market and have learnt a lot about advertising, marketing, expense and profit. Well done to the middle school!

Next Friday the 6th November is our Bellevue 500. Please support your child to construct a car at home and to seek sponsorship for this event. Our PTA is working hard behind the scenes to make the event a success and we appreciate you coming out to support us on the day.
